MISSIONS

COINS FOR CHRIST POBLO International Ministries is our featured COINS FOR CHRIST mission for May. In Wisconsin, POBLO missionaries Praveen Manuel and Ebou Faye engage in evangelism and community outreach among immigrants and refugees primarily from South Asia and North Africa. There are three International Friendship Centers in Wisconsin where volunteers provide English and sewing classes. Missionaries distribute food, clothing and household items to at-need refugee families. They also provide Bible studies and discipleship to new Christians. Help us support POBLO's mission outreach through gifts and prayers this month.

You may never go on a mission trip, but you can help spread the Word by generously donating your coins each week or using the Coins For Christ envelopes for checks or bills found on the Narthex table. Coins For Christ is also an online giving option.

This opens up Pilgrim Lutheran School to new funding opportunities to help improve learning environments for students. The best part? Donations don't come out of your own pocket. When you make Coca-Cola purchases, you simply enter the product codes here: us.coca-cola.com/give/schools/ and our school receives a donation. Help Pilgrim Lutheran School make the most of this program and learn more at Coke.com/give. Codes from Coca-Cola products can also be brought in to the school and left in the box on the shelf upstairs near the office.

Stewardship

Trinity Sunday
Romans 8: 14-17

Both brothers were covered with grime and leaves, and both had a large bandage on their foreheads. The reporter saw what was evident - both had fought the tornado together. "We held the wall even though a big branch fell on us," they said, "but the wall survived. We saved the house!" Though weary and hurting, they were overjoyed because they had gone through it together. In sharing their suffering, they both reaped the joy of victory. Sometimes our stewardship of time and finances can seem unpleasant. There are other things we could have done with the money. There are other things we could have done with our time. Yet, when the sacrifice is over, we realize that, in going through it together, we have the joy of victory. When your sacrifices for Christ and His church are burdensome, remember that you will also share in the joy of knowing many have been added to God's Kingdom.

May 27 – Holy Trinity – "Woe is me! ... I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips" (Isaiah 6:5). Many among us complicit in crimes against life secretly cry Isaiah's lament. "Behold ... your guilt is taken away, and your sin atoned for" (6:7). The Gospel of God's healing holiness speaks especially to them. How can we keep silent about it when the same fierce Spirit of Fatherhood and Sonship so fills us? Prayer: *Loving Father, Son, and Spirit, send us to prophesy of Your eternal life. Amen.
